- Mile Square Cards -

The Mile Square Hobby Association does require all users of the park flying site to obtain a current membership card. I have been out there flying lately, and have been asked to show Identification on several occasions. Because the Harbor Soaring Society is already a member of the Association, our members can get their cards for only 25¢. See Frank Chasteler for these. No sense being asked to stop flying over lack of a simple card. Also ask Frank to sell you some nifty club decals and patches... they just go to waste in his notebook.
